

Good, Better, Best

GOOD:

A Madison, WI policeman had a perfect spot to watch for speeders, but wasn't getting many. Then he discovered the problem. A 12-year-old boy was standing up the road with a hand-painted sign, which read, "RADAR TRAP AHEAD."

The officer later found a young accomplice down the road with a sign reading, "TIPS" and a bucket full of money. (And we used to just sell lemonade!)

BETTER:

A motorist was mailed a picture of his car speeding through an automated radar post in La Crosse, WI. A $40 speeding ticket was included.

Being cute, he sent the police department a picture of $40. The police responded with another mailed photo—of handcuffs.

BEST:

A young woman was pulled over for speeding. A Wisconsin State Trooper walked to her car window, flipping open his ticket book.

She said, "I bet you are going to sell me a ticket to the State Troopers Ball."

The officer promptly replied, "Wisconsin State Troopers don't have balls."

There was a moment of silence while she smiled, and he realized what he'd just said. He then closed his book, got back in his patrol car and left. She was laughing too hard to start her car.
