

How to Properly Place New Employees

1. Put 400 bricks in a closed room.
2. Put your new hires in the room and close the door.
3. Leave them alone and come back after 6 hours.
4. Then analyze the situation:
  - a. If they are counting the bricks, put them in the Accounting Department.
  - b. If they are recounting them, put them in Auditing.
  - c. If they have messed up the whole place with the bricks, put them in Engineering.
  - d. If they are arranging the bricks in some strange order, put them in Planning.
  - e. If they are throwing the bricks at each other, put them in Operations.
  - f. If they are sleeping, put them in Security.
  - g. If they have broken the bricks into pieces, put them in Information Technology.
  - h. If they are sitting idle, put them in Human Resources.
  - i. If they say they have tried different combinations, they are looking for more, yet not a brick has been moved, put them in Sales.
  - j. If they have already left for the day, put them in Management.
  - k. If they are staring out of the window, put them in Strategic Planning.
  - l. If they are talking to each other, and not a single brick has been moved, congratulate them and put them in Top Management.
  - m. Finally, if they have surrounded themselves with bricks in such a way that they can neither be seen nor heard from, put them in Congress.
